- Flex weeks are built in for required self-quarantine and to accommodate actual audition rotations schedules. Your actual week of self-quarantine may not be those listed above, but are instead flexible. During the week of self-quarantine you must complete the ICU/CCU modules in one semester and the EM modules in the other semester – in which semester you complete these is flexible. If none of your rotations require self-quarantine, you must still include 4 weeks for study for the online ICU/CCU or EM modules into each semester to ensure that you complete 22 weeks of curriculum in each semester.
