Fourth Year Paper Evaluation

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Title Page Possible points - 4</th>
<th>Abstract Possible points - 10</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
|                      | ➢ Name of research paper and title of student (1)
➢ Title of faculty mentor and college affiliations (1)
➢ Type of research and date or clinical area of the case (1)
➢ Appropriate grammar, style and guidelines (1) | ➢ Objective (2)
➢ Context (2)
➢ Methods or case report and data sources (2)
➢ Study section or comparison to literature/Data extraction and synthesis and/or conclusions (2)
➢ Less than 350 words with appropriate grammar, style and guidelines (2) |
|                      | Introduction Possible points - 15                                                        | Description of methods used Possible points – 15 |
|                      | ➢ Rationale (3)
➢ Description of choice for design or methods (3)
➢ Pertinent historical data and presentation (9) | ➢ Quality of writing (5)
➢ Clear description of methods (5)
➢ Reasonable methods utilized (5) |
|                      | Results Reported Possible points – 20                                                   | Conclusions Possible points – 20 |
|                      | ➢ Quality of writing (5)
➢ Accuracy/completeness of reporting (5)
➢ Graphs, tables or pictures included (5)
➢ Accuracy/completeness of content (5) | ➢ Quality of writing (5)
➢ Rationality of conclusions (5)
➢ Accuracy/completeness of conclusions (5)
➢ Accuracy/completeness of comparisons to literature (5) |
|                      | Acknowledgements and References Possible points - 6                                     | Clinical and Scientific Relevance Possible points - 10 |
|                      | ➢ Adequate number and quality of references (3)
➢ Acknowledgements and references appropriately written (3) | ➢ Evaluate clinical or scientific relevance (10) |
|                      | TOTAL SCORE                                                                              |                                  |
|                      | ➢ 100 points possible                                                                    |                                  |